

Alliance Bank's Junior Board of Directors Tours Pulaski Memorial Hospital

Pulaski and White Co. - On November 19th, 2019 the Alliance Bank Junior Board of Directors visited Pulaski Memorial Hospital.

Pulaski Memorial Hospital (PMH) was the vision of physicians and county leaders concerned with the healthcare needs of the community. In 1963, PMH opened their doors to provide the area with maternity, general surgery and in-patient care. For over 50 years, Pulaski Memorial Hospital has been central to the lives of the residents of Pulaski County and surrounding areas. The mission of Pulaski Memorial Hospital is to provide excellent healthcare to improve the health and quality of life for the people and communities they serve.

The Junior Board was able to talk with CEO Tom Barry, Chief Human Resources Officer Sherry Jorczak and Revenue Cycle Manager Ashley Gorby. The Hospital staff spoke about each of their roles in the organization, as well as other employment opportunities available at the Hospital. Director of Communications Brian Ledley led the Junior Board on a tour the facility and helped them gain insight into some of the daily operations of the Hospital.
