

NEWS RELEASE

2 Rensselaer Natives Join Alliance Bank Team

Rensselaer, IN – On behalf of the Board of Directors, Alliance Bank is honored to announce the recent addition of Jeffrey D Webb as their newest board member.

As a lifetime resident of Jasper County, Jeff is very involved with several community groups and activities - exemplifying the spirit of Alliance. Jeff lives in Rensselaer with his wife Stacy and their three sons.

Jeff is a CPA and worked for Jasper County Hospital for over 14 years, serving as CFO for 10 of those years. He is currently the Controller for Fratco, Inc in Francesville.

Hunter Hickman, recently joined the Alliance Bank team as a Mortgage Loan Originator. Hunter is a graduate of Wabash College and has extensive experience in Financial Services. As a home loan lender, Hunter will be able to expound on his strengths for Alliance Bank.

Hunter will be working to assist clients with all home loans including mortgages and home equity loans and lines of credit.

“I am extremely excited to be a part of the Alliance Bank family. I love the community of Rensselaer and feel blessed to be able to interact with individuals within the community on a daily basis”, stated Hickman.

Don Koleszar, VP Lending remarked, “We are very excited to have someone of Hunter’s caliber on our team. Hunter’s ability to be an active listener will enable him to help clients choose the right home loan for their needs.”

Hunter is currently involved with the Bomber Wrestling Club and is a Rensselaer Central High School Wrestling Coach. Hunter is a lifetime resident of Rensselaer and is looking forward to settling in with his fiancé, Maggie.

Alliance Bank is proud to be your local Real Community Bank® with offices in Francesville, Monon, Monticello, Otterbein, Oxford, Rensselaer, and Winamac.